Finding our Strength: A Reflection on the Eastern District Pastors' Retreat

The Rev. Missy Johnson, President of the Eastern District Executive Board

Where do we find the strength we need for life and ministry? Our Eastern District pastoral leaders reflected upon this question as we gathered in Maryland from March 31st through April 2nd. The setting was Bon Secours Retreat and Conference Center in Marriottsville, Maryland. Bon secours means "good help." The Sisters of Bon Secours share the Good News by creating an atmosphere of simplicity, beauty, and gracious hospitality. It was a delight to rest in the Spirit in such lovely surroundings.

Thirty-three pastors, both ordained and lay, traveled to Bon Secours on a glorious Monday afternoon. They were greeted in the sunshine by some members of the Eastern District Executive Board and our four bishops who reside in the Eastern District. After settling in, we enjoyed a delicious meal, and laughter could be heard throughout the dining room. This was sacred time of connection and reconnection. This was our first retreat since before COVID, and it was good for our souls to be together. We also welcomed eleven members of our group who had never been to a retreat in the Eastern District. A third of us! We needed to get to know one another. We certainly held in prayer our dear colleagues who were not able to join us for the gathering. They were missed!

We explored the sources of our strength through wonderful worship led by our bishops and joy-filled times of fellowship, when there may or may not have been some very competitive games of Jenga and Spoons. What fun to simply be together, enjoy one another, and laugh. There was also plenty of time to remember that our strength comes from the self-care found in an afternoon nap or a walk in nature on a beautiful spring day. When we are together, strength can be found in a chapel, a pedicure salon, a labyrinth, or an ice cream shop.

We were joined by Anthony Briggs, who is the Executive Director of the Cross Roads Camp & Retreat Center, a neighbor to our own Camp Hope. Anthony shared his group facilitation skills and wonderful sense of humor as he guided us in discussions about our own individuals strengths and the strengths we have as a team working in our district. Through the use of a valuable tool, the CliftonStrengths Assessment, we learned a lot about ourselves and how we interact with others. I would not be surprised if this tool gets used more broadly in our congregations in the future.

I extend my deep gratitude – to the pastors who gave the time necessary to come and learn together; to the congregations who encouraged them to come and provided funds to make it possible; to the Thriving in Ministry grant that offset some of the retreat's costs; to Anthony for leading us; to the Eastern District Executive Board and all who helped to plan the retreat and find the funding necessary; to our bishops who cared for our souls; and to God who has called each one of us and who continues to give us the strength we need so we can serve faithfully in this time.

Provincewide Updates

Institute on Ecumenism opportunity open to lay or clergy in their 30s

The Provincial Elders' Conference is pleased to promote the Institute on Ecumenism, offered by Churches Uniting in Christ (CUIC), an ecumenical body of which the Moravian Church Northern Province is a member. The Institute is a ten-month educational opportunity, open to lay or clergy members in their 30s, from among the ten member denominations. The Moravian Church Northern Province may send two people. CUIC is underwriting the entire cost for participants, who must be willing to commit to two three-day, in-person gatherings, along with monthly two-hour online sessions (September 2025-June 2026), culminating in a ministry project in their home context.

The Institute represents a wonderful opportunity for any Moravian in their 30's to learn about the ecumenical movement – how it got started, and more importantly, how working ecumenically can bless the world today. The PEC is particularly encouraging lay people to consider applying. Mikayla Sauerbrey, pastor of the Calvary Moravian Church in Allentown, PA, participated in last year's institute. She writes, "As a new pastor, I appreciated being a part of the CUIC's Institute on Ecumenism and learning more about the ecumenical work that has been and continues to be done all across the globe. In a day when we divide so easily, being a part of efforts seeking to unite out of love for Christ and humanity was something I am incredibly grateful for."

To learn more or apply to participate, contact Betsy Miller (betsy@mcnp.org), Ecumenical Officer, no later than May 31, 2025. If you have questions about the program or what is involved, contact Hermann Weinlick (weinlicks@gmail.com), who is part of the teaching team, or Mikayla Sauerbrey (revmikayla@gmail.com).

Moravian Music Sunday Treasures of 19th Century Moravian Music

Recognizing that music is a means of proclaiming the Gospel, we celebrate Moravian music on the fifth Sunday of Easter, May 18, 2025. At a time when our own world seems to be rapidly changing, we can find some comfort in listening to the sounds of earlier Moravians who also recognized that through it all, God's love remains eternal.

This year, we will be celebrating the 200th birthday of both Georg Friedrich Hellström (1825–1912) and Henri Marc Hermann Woldemar

Voullaire (1825–1902) with our theme: Celebrating Hellström, Voullaire, and Moravian Romanticism: Treasures of 19th Century Moravian Music. This is a perfect excuse to explore some of the 19th century works that are often overlooked in favor of the earlier "Golden Age" of 18th century Moravian composition.

Resources provided (go to MoravianMusic.org/Moravian-Music-Sunday-2025/):

- Letter (explains the event and the theme)
- Music suggestions
- Order of Worship (optional)

Racial Justice Team Calendar: May 2025

May 5th: National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Erica Rios and Jessica Espinoza, members of the RJT and of Morongo Moravian Church in Banning, California, have provided a reflection for use on and around this day. Find the reflection, as well as a bulletin insert, on the RJT Calendar webpage. An excerpt of the reflection is included below.

The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women (MMIW) movement is a growing call for justice and recognition of the alarming rates at which Indigenous women and girls in North America go missing or are murdered. Native American and Alaska Native women face disproportionate levels of violence, including sexual assault and murder, far exceeding national averages. This issue is not only a public safety crisis but also a matter of human rights and racial injustice.

Prayer Concerns

The Rev. Dr. James Swen Hilander, age 99, passed away on April 22, 2025. He was born on May 16, 1925, the son of Elmer J. and Annie (Bunda) Hilander, in the Town of Liberty Grove, Door County, Wisconsin. In 1943 he enrolled as a pre-theolog at Moravian College in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. His studies were interrupted when he entered the U.S. Army, Infantry, in 1945. Jim returned home and re-enrolled in Moravian College in 1947. His interests were in Moravian Missions and serving rural churches. He graduated with a B.A. in English from Moravian College in 1948. He enrolled in Moravian Theological Seminary in 1948. He completed his middler seminary year at Louisville Presbyterian Seminary because of the number of rural church courses offered. He completed a summer of courses at Cornell College, which enabled him to accept an assignment as student pastor in a small-town parish with a pastor noted for his rural church interests. He returned to Bethlehem for his third Seminary year, graduating in 1951 with a Master of Divinity Degree. Jim was ordained as a deacon in the Moravian Church, Northern Province, on November 18, 1951, at Sister Bay Moravian Church. He had accepted a call to serve as pastor of the Wisconsin Rapids Rural Parish, serving the four country churches of Kellner, Rudolph, Saratoga and Veedum. During his years serving in the Rural Parish Jim married Doretta Hanson, who became his active partner in ministry and lifelong secretary. Following his work there, he accepted a call to the Upper Michigan parish of Daggett Moravian Church and Menominee Moravian Church. Jim was ordained a presbyter while serving in Michigan. During his three years there, he oversaw renovation of the Daggett church building and the building of their Christian Education Building, and the building of Menominee Moravian Church. In 1961 Jim accepted a call to serve the London Moravian Church (Cambridge, WI), on a half time basis. He also began graduate work at UW Madison, and earned a Master's in Rural Sociology. After two years he retired from serving the London congregation when he began studies toward a PhD. Jim and Doretta moved to Madison, Doretta worked at the university, and the couple welcomed their daughter, Britt. When he completed course work for a PhD in Sociology and a Minor in Urban and Regional Planning, he accepted a position at Virginia Tech in Sociology, and in Urban and Regional Planning, beginning in 1966. Jim and Doretta and daughter Britt enjoyed living in Virginia, and son Swen was born in Roanoke. Jim could not resist accepting the offer of a position in the Department of Sociology at his Alma Mater and the family moved to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania in 1968. Jim served for many years as Chair of the department. He completed several demographic studies for the Moravian denomination, served on several committees, and as head of the Seminary Alumni Update Committee. He twice was awarded the Timothy Breidegam Award, a student-voted honor. He retired in 1996 as Professor Emeritus.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Lloyd (Grace) Hilander, his sisters, Glenna (Lawrence) Reinhard, and Helen (Chester) Linden; his twin infant children, Timothy and Julie; his sisters-and brothers-in law, Raymond (Joan) Hanson, and Caroline (Robert) Treutel. Jim was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He is survived by his wife, Doretta (Hanson) Hilander; his daughter, Britt Hilander, son-in-law David Stuart and their children, Alexander, Owen and Swen; and by his son, Swen Hilander, daughter-in-law, Jenifer and their daughter, Ilse. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews, and by many cousins and friends. A memorial service was held on Sunday, April 27th at Sister Bay Moravian Church. Memorials may be given to Sister Bay Moravian Church or to Board of World Mission, 1021 Center Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018. James' full obituary can be found on his tribute page at www.CaspersonFuneralHome, where expressions of sympathy, memories, and photos of James may also be shared with his family.

Summer Camp

The signs of spring are slowly starting to show and soon it will be time for the summer camp season to begin. For the first time since COVID, Van Es Camp will be offering 3 summer camps this year. Van Es welcomes campers, volunteers, and staff from all walks of life. While this is a Christian camp, we do not discriminate based on religion, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, or ability.

As we have done in the past, we are keeping the registration fees low so that children of all economic status can attend. This means we again will be fund raising to help off set the cost. We have really been blessed the last few years as we have always made our goals, and we hope to do so again. If you wish to register for camp or donate, please see our web page www.vanes.ca.

A Word from the District President, Rev. Jason Andersen

I wanted to let you all know that I will be on vacation for two weeks next month. My wife Amy and I (along with Greg and Amy Behrend from Freedom and You Belong) will be traveling to Europe to visit Moravian historical heritage sites. We are planning on visiting Herrnhut, Prague (including Bethlehem Chapel where Hus preached), Kunwald, and the Chalice Rocks, where the ancient Unity took communion in secret, plus as many other sites as we can fit in. We are very grateful that this trip is being significantly subsidized by the PEC through the Brown Fund, a fund established through a gift many years ago, to allow Moravian pastors and spouses to visit "Prague or some other European Moravian community." I will be gone from June 8 - 24. In the June Moravian Monthly, we will share who from the District Board will be on call during those days. I plan on taking lots of pictures and would be more than happy to come visit your congregation and provide a presentation about my trip.
