Moravian Unity Cultural Heritage Foundation

MUCHF is an entity of the Unity, established by the Unity Synod 2016, whose task is to look after the historical physical structures around the unity. This foundation has gained importance in the Unity as an entity established to help raising funds outside the Moravian Church to repair and renovate historic buildings around the Unity. MUCHF is a Unity Undertaking.

MUCHF Administrator Position available:

The Moravian Cultural Heritage Foundation (MUCHF) invites applications for the position of Administrator to support the establishment and development of its Unity-wide cultural heritage work. This role focuses on building the Foundation's operational systems, supporting governance, coordinating research and documentation, assisting with grants and reporting, and strengthening collaboration across Moravian communities. While initially administrative and coordinating in nature, the position is expected to evolve into a broader cultural heritage role as funding and programmes expand. Should any questions have remained unanswered, please do not hesitate to ask the UBA at: boytler@ebu.de

MORAVIAN ARCHIVES

BETHLEHEM

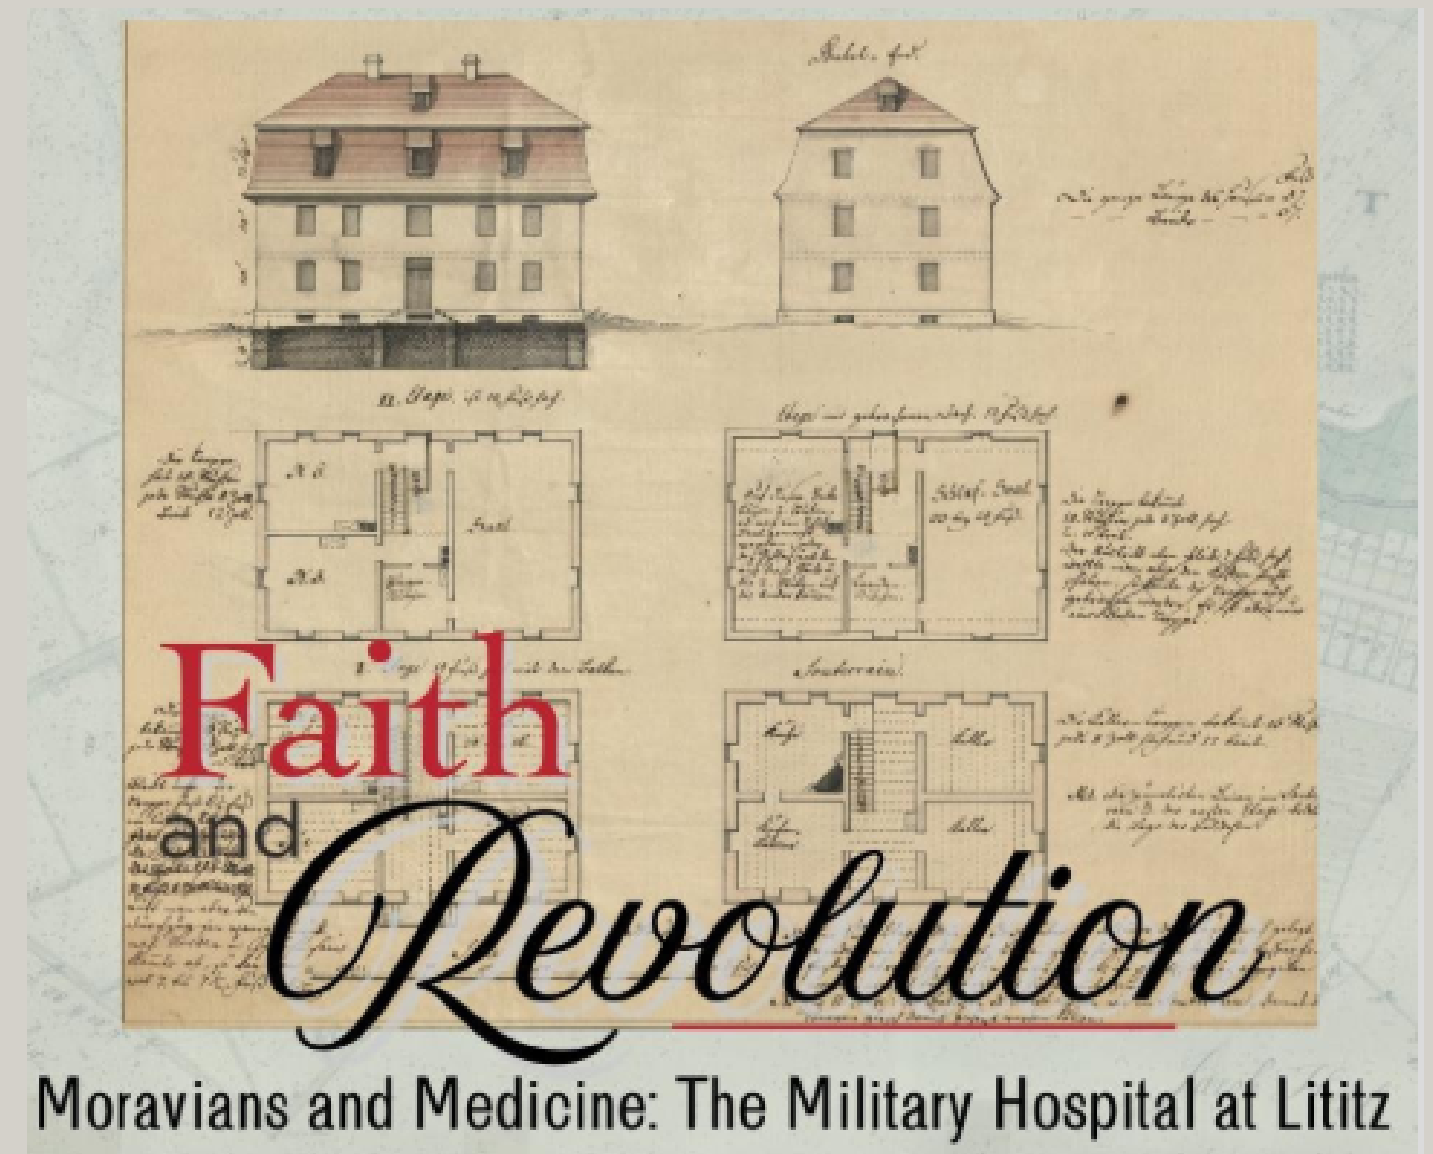

As the American Revolution raged on, Moravian communities in North America strove to remain neutral in the conflict. Despite their efforts, a number of these communities were required by the Continental Army to act as hospitals for the wounded and ill soldiers. Learn about how this played out in Lititz, Pennsylvania in this fifth in a series of monthly posts on the Moravians and the Revolutionary War.
