What We Do, Not What We Say

In Matthew 23:1–12, Jesus names a hard truth: some persons speak faithfully, even correctly, but fail to live what they proclaim. The teachers of the law "tie up heavy burdens" for others, yet won't lift a finger to help. It's a sobering mirror for us. How often do we speak about service, preach about love, and celebrate compassion—yet struggle to actually step into the messy, inconvenient work of serving others?

It's worth asking ourselves an uncomfortable question: How many people have we truly served? Not greeted on a Sunday morning. Not prayed for from a distance. But served—personally, sacrificially, intentionally. Jesus is clear that greatness in the kingdom isn't measured by titles, attendance, or eloquence, but by humility and action: "The greatest among you will be your servant." That's not poetic language—it's a reordering of priorities.

Many of our churches have unintentionally flipped that order. Worship gatherings have become the center, while mission is an occasional extension. But what if Jesus is calling us to something deeper? The truest expression of worship is not what happens in a pew, but what happens in the streets, homes, and lives of those we are called to serve. This isn't about diminishing worship—it's about embodying it. When service becomes central, our faith moves from words to witness. And perhaps then we will be known not for what we say, but for what we do.

726 Jesus Loves Me! This I Know

TEXT: Anna Bartlett Warner (1859)
TUNE: William B. Bradbury (1861), alt.

7.7.7.7. with Refrain
JESUS LOVES ME

BAPTISM

For the Baptism of Children and Adults

(Standing)

(A hymn of baptism or faith may be sung.)

In grace God called and chose the people of Israel and established with them a covenant: I will be your God and you will be my people. In that relationship they were to be freed from sin and become a blessing to all. Then God came to us in Jesus Christ and fulfilled that covenant for all people. Through Christ's life, death, and resurrection, God made for us a new covenant of grace.

We come before you with joy, O God, to claim the promises of your covenant.

Our Lord Jesus Christ instituted baptism as the visible means of entry into the new covenant. Baptism is a gift of God. In this sacrament, through grace and the power of the Holy Spirit, we are united with Christ, are cleansed by his saving work, enter into the fellowship of the church, and are called to a life of faith and willing obedience.

Those of you baptized into Christ Jesus, how were you baptized?

Into his death. We were buried with him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glorious power of God Almighty, we too might be raised to live a new life.

(When only adults are baptized, the following sentence is omitted.)

In baptism children also share in the benefits of our Lord's redeeming work through God's grace and the faith of parents, and of the church,

For God's promise is to us and to our children.

(The minister addresses the candidates, parents, and sponsors.)

As you present yourselves before God and this congregation, we call upon you to profess your faith.

Do you believe in God as your Creator and loving heavenly Father, in Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord, and in the Holy Spirit as your Comforter and Sustainer, according to the Holy Scriptures?

I do.

(Candidates, parents, and sponsors may profess their faith by means of the Apostles' Creed, the baptismal profession of the early church. The congregation may be invited to join in the Creed as an affirmation of their own baptism.)

Lord, make us one with all your children as we profess our faith, saying:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Ancient text reads "catholic," which means "universal."

(The minister addresses the candidates, parents, and sponsors.)

Do you in this faith turn away from sin, evil, and selfishness in your thoughts, words, and actions; and do you intend to participate actively in Christ's church, serving God all the days of your life?

I do.

(When only adults are baptized, the following question for parents and sponsors is omitted.)

Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit, do you promise to lead your children by prayer, instruction, and example toward that time when they can by grace confirm their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and commit themselves to the life and work of the church?

I do.

Do you receive and affirm these children of God as members of this congregation, and accept your obligation to love and nurture them in Christ?

We do.

(Sitting. One of the following hymns is sung.)

(Water may be poured into the font or bowl.)

We thank you, gracious God, for the gift of water, which you have created and given to us as a sign of life. We recall with gratitude how you led your people from slavery to freedom through the waters of the sea. We rejoice in the gift of the Holy Spirit at the baptism of your Son in the waters of the Jordan, and we praise you for opening to us the way of eternal life through his death and resurrection. Now send your Spirit upon _____ who receive(s) the water of baptism today, so that they may become (a) living, growing and active member(s) of your church, rise to new life, be led and nourished by your word and sacraments, and share in your eternal blessings.

Amen.

(When only adults are baptized, the following is omitted.)

Give to these parents and sponsors your wisdom and strength, that with love and understanding they may guide to Christian maturity the young lives entrusted to their care.

Amen.

(The minister baptizes each candidate with a threefold application of water, saying:)

_____ , into the death of Jesus I baptize you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

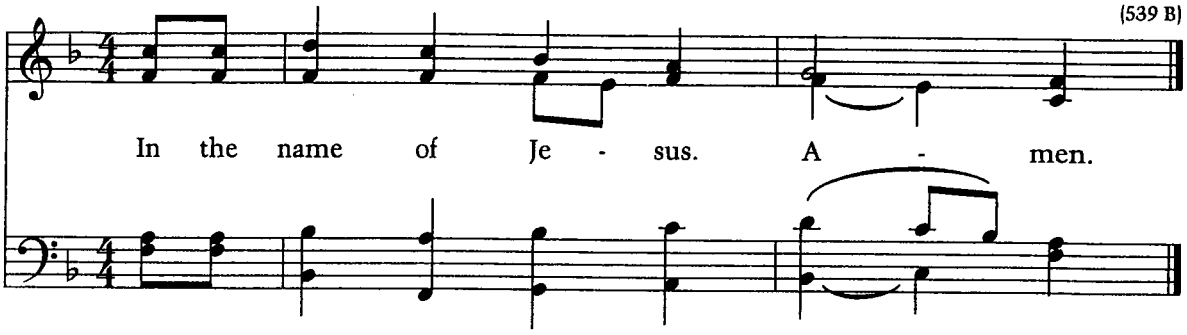
(Each newly baptized person receives the laying on of hands, symbolizing the pouring out of the Holy Spirit. Parents and sponsors of young children join with the minister in the laying on of hands.)

Now through God's grace and the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, you have been brought into the covenant; therefore live, yet not you alone, but Christ live in you; and the life which you live now, live by faith in the Son of God, who loved you and gave his life for you.

(The minister pronounces a text of Scripture for the newly baptized adult.)

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious unto you;
The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace;

(539 B)



Reaffirmation of Faith

(The congregation sitting, the candidates present themselves, and the minister gives them the following greeting and charge.)

_____, you have affirmed your faith and baptismal covenant before God and this congregation, and, by the grace and strength of Christ, have declared your desire and promise to renew your Christian discipleship. We welcome you with joy and thanksgiving.

May the Lord be with you. Build yourselves up on your most holy faith, led by the Holy Spirit. Keep yourselves by grace in the love of God, as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ in his mercy to give you eternal life.

Transfer of Membership

(The congregation sitting, the candidates present themselves, and the minister gives them the following greeting and charge.)

_____, through baptism, profession of faith, and Christian service, you have already entered into the life of the Church Universal, and today we rejoice to welcome and receive you into the fellowship of this congregation. Continue faithfully in the good way you have chosen in Christ, and may the Holy Spirit bless you in your life among us. May we all, through grace, be enabled to support and encourage one another in Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Standing. During the singing of the following hymn, the minister and others, according to local practice, give the right hand of fellowship to all who have been baptized or who have publicly affirmed their baptism on this day.)

Moravian Birthday Hymn #447

With your presence, Lord, our Head and Savior, bless them all, we humbly pray;

our dear heavenly Father's love and favor be their comfort every day.

May God's Spirit now in each proceeding favor them with his most gracious leading;

thus shall they be truly blessed both in labor and in rest.

On the first Sunday of each month during congregational prayers, we will join in singing the Moravian Birthday hymn to those celebrating birthdays that month.

Psalm 34: 1-10, 22

Praise for Deliverance from Trouble

1 I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2 My soul makes its boast in the LORD;
let the humble hear and be glad.

3 O magnify the LORD with me,
and let us exalt his name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.

5 Look to him, and be radiant;
so your faces shall never be ashamed.
6 This poor soul cried, and was heard by the LORD, and was saved from every trouble.

7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
8 O taste and see that the LORD is good;
happy are those who take refuge in him.

9 O fear the LORD, you his holy ones, for those who fear him have no want.
10 The young lions suffer want and hunger,
but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
22 The LORD redeems the life of his servants;
none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

1 John 3:1-3 NRSVUE

3 [1] See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. [2] Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. [3]
And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Matthew 5:1-12 NRSVUE

The Beatitudes

5 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. [2] And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

[3] "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

[4] "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

[5] "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

10 "Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

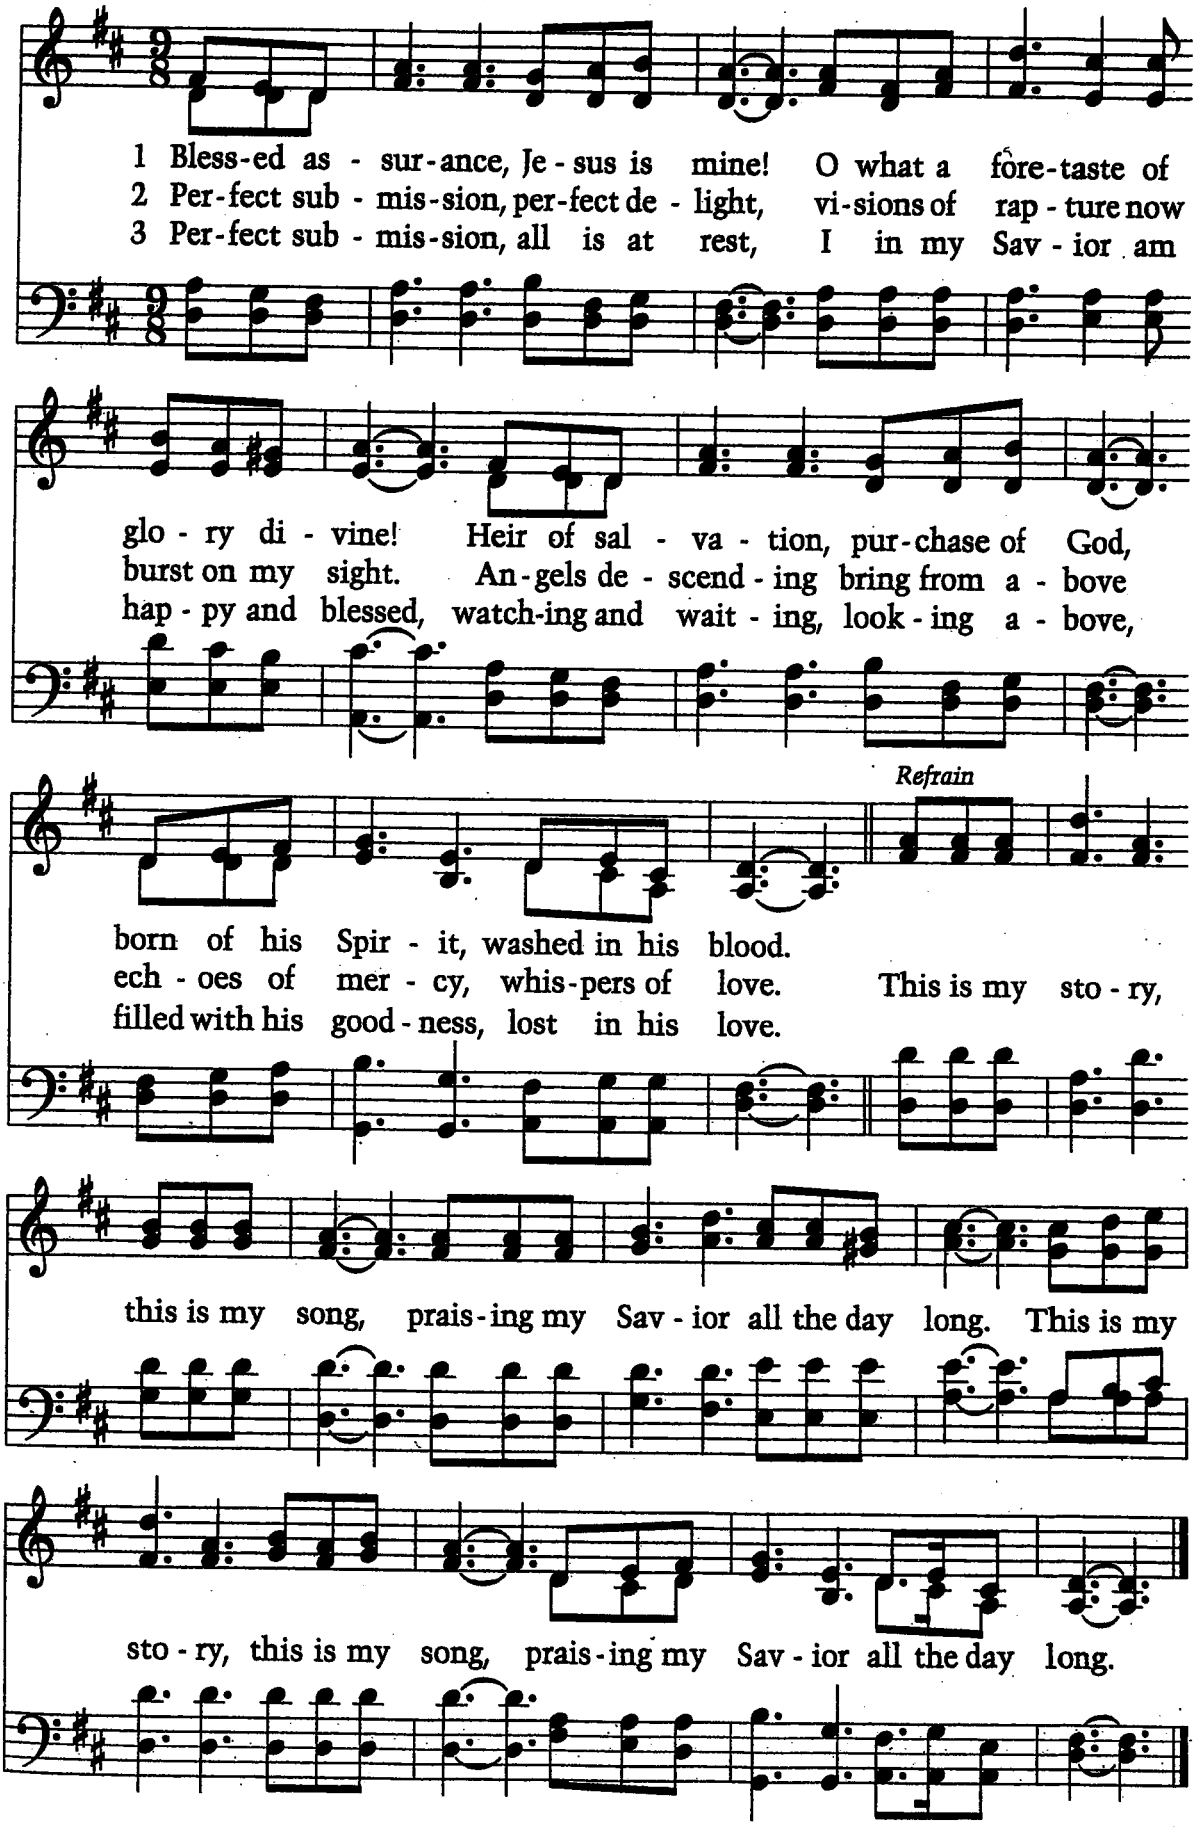
Blessed Assurance 714



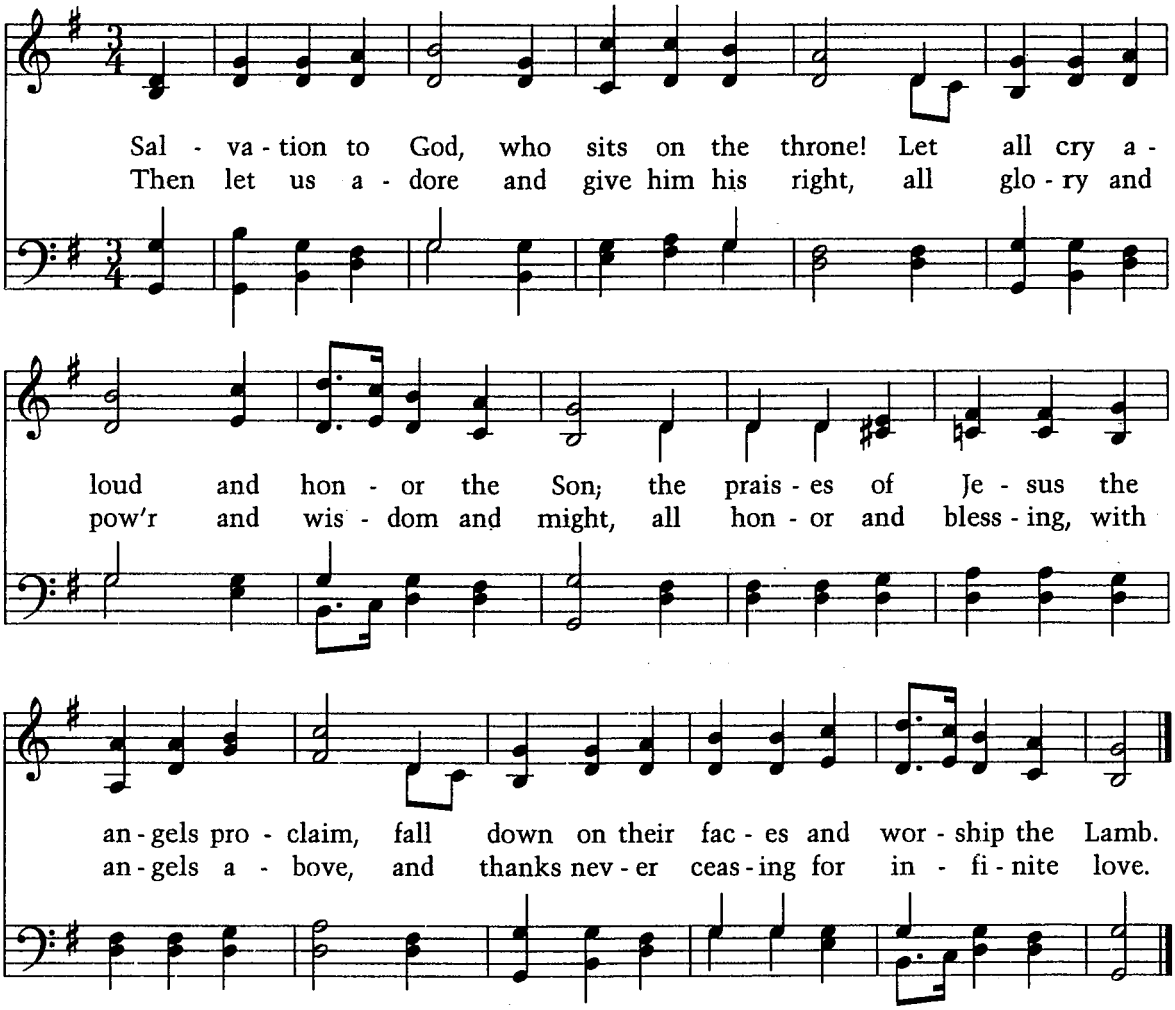
ALL SAINTS

(Standing)

Behold, a great multitude, which no one can number, out of every nation and of all tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, with palm branches in their hands,

And they cry with a loud voice saying, "Salvation belongs to our God, who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb."

LYONS



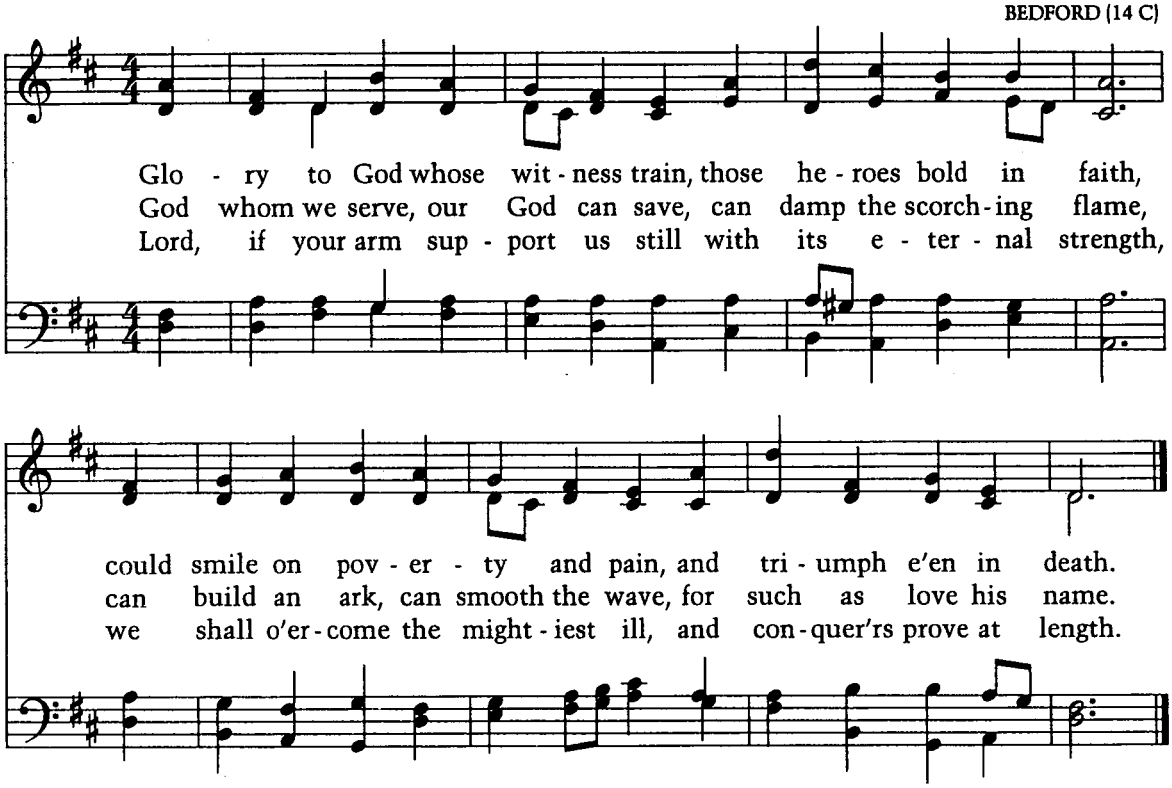
These are the ones of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and the holes in the ground. They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were slain with the sword, they were burned at the stake, they were killed by an assassin's bullet. They were destitute, persecuted, tormented. These are the ones who have come out of great tribulation; they have washed their robes and cleansed them in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore they are before the throne of God, and they worship day and night in the temple.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of living water.

And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

BEDFORD (14 C)



(Kneeling or sitting)

Almighty God, Redeemer and Sustainer, we offer you thanks and praise for the holy lives of all your servants — the prophets, apostles, and martyrs — who have shone forth as lights in the world and sacrificed their lives in testimony of their faith.

(On the Sunday nearest July 6 the following sentence is added:)

We thank you for calling your servant John Hus to be an instrument of reformation and renewal in your church, and for keeping him faithful even unto a martyr's death.

We thank you for the triumphant fellowship of all the saints in glory. We remember before you all who have been called to the more immediate presence of the Savior, and especially those most dear to us and our congregation. We rejoice in our present fellowship with them, in our continuing hope, and in the promise of eternal joy. Let the great cloud of witnesses, the innumerable company of those who have gone before and entered into rest, be to us an example of godly life. May we run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith; and may we obtain entrance into your eternal kingdom, and with the glorious assembly of the saints, worship and adore you.

(Standing)

LANCASHIRE (151 M)

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. If God is for us, who can be against us!

Hear the words of the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, who was dead and is alive again: Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

To him who loves us and washed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests to God, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

("Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," Hymn 394, may be used in place of the following to conclude the liturgy.)

Moravian Disaster Response to Hurricane Melissa in Jamaica

10/28/26 UPDATE – One Year Since the Hurricane

One year after Hurricane Melissa made landfall on October 28, 2025, the Board of World Mission (BWM) continues to stand alongside the Moravian Church in Jamaica and the Cayman Islands Province (MCJCI). Through the faithful partnership of Moravians across North America, the BWM has sent more than $225,000 to the province for four building projects (Salem Manse, Petersville Church, New Fulneck Manse, and Camp Hope) and general provincial needs.

A new report from the MCJCI Provincial Elders' Conference (PEC) shows meaningful progress. Eleven properties have been repaired or restored, and nine more projects are underway. Four are nearly complete, including Camp Hope and the New Fulneck Manse, both supported by the BWM. Several properties have not yet begun restoration, and the PEC is prayerfully discerning how best to use limited resources so congregations remain strong for years to come.

The impact reaches beyond buildings. Thirty-seven of the province's 64 congregations sit within the disaster zone, where many people are rebuilding homes and livelihoods. Because ministers are paid through congregational assessments, and many congregations are still recovering, meeting salary and health-insurance costs has become a real challenge. The PEC has identified support for ministers' health insurance as a meaningful way the BWM can help at this time. We invite you to consider a gift to the BWM's Moravian Disaster Response (MDR) in Jamaica to help cover health-insurance premiums, so pastors and their families are cared for as they continue to serve.

Please keep the province in prayer as it prepares for its next synod, which will be held March 29 to April 2, 2027, and for its leaders and ministers who continue to serve amid recovery and rebuilding. Thank you for walking alongside our brothers and sisters in Jamaica and the Cayman Islands through your prayers and generosity.
