Christmas is Coming!!!!

That phrase brings joy to the hearts of children and youth. And for most adults, there's a sense of how am I ever going to get every single thing done on this massive list of stuff that I think I need to accomplish. Not sure about you, but when I hear that Christmas is coming, my list looks something like this:

1) decide on what presents and how many presents to buy my kids and other people
2) buy the presents either online (boring but so easy) or in a store (so many people)
3) wrap the presents
4) hide the presents
5) mail the presents to the people we won't see
6) design, print and mail Christmas Cards
7) decide on what, where and when we will be eating
8) decide when we will be visiting relatives and friends
9) get everything ready for Christmas Eve worship services
10) pick out outfits for the boys that they will tolerate
11) bake cookies?!?
12) all the other stuff that I'm forgetting

Probably not an exhaustive list, hence number 12, but still a list none the less. In the past few years, I have found myself making lists frequently. Sure, I've lists of stuff that we need for vacations or stuff I need to accomplish, but I did not write these lists with any level of consistency and I did not always complete the lists. But I think lists can be a helpful thing to remind us of all that we need to accomplish. Sometimes though our lists get so overwhelming that we can't figure out what to do next.

So, maybe this year, we dial stuff back a little. Maybe we focus less on all the stuff and focus more on the people in our lives. Remember back to that first Christmas, there was not a lot of stuff. Sure, the town was busy with the census, but there were not overflowing piles of gifts and parents running on fumes. Heck, that first Christmas wasn't even Christmas, it was a woman giving birth to a baby in a stable, with a manger for a bed. Yes, there were angels singing and stars shining and some little kid playing a drum. There were shepherds in the fields waiting over their flocks and more angels came to them, told them about something truly remarkable that had happened and off they went to find the miracle. There were wisemen from the east who tracked a star that led them to Jesus (about two years later) and they gave him gifts fit for a king. But still, not a lot of stuff, just a baby born in a unique situation and some angels to sing about it.

Maybe there's something that we can learn from this story. Maybe we should focus more on the Christ child and less on the Christmas craziness. Maybe we should find ways to be more present in the lives of our loved ones and worry less about the presents under the tree. Maybe we can focus on the miracle of that silent night, when all was calm and all was bright, and less on the clamoring distractions of this world. Maybe during this Advent and Christmas season, we can focus more on the miracle of the birth of the Christ child, who came to earth to save each one of us, and less on all everything else.

Have a Blessed Advent Season and a Joyous Christmas!

Pastor Jodie

- Christmas Poinsettia order form is on page 9 of the newsletter. Deadline to order is Sunday, December 6th.

- NECC Christmas Edgeboro is sponsoring 75 children for gifts for Christmas this year. If you are interested in being a sponsor, please choose a tag (gingerbread person, ornament or stocking) from the garland hanging in the sanctuary. All needed information is on the back of the tag. After you select the tag, be sure to fill out the information on the clipboard on the piano, so we can keep track of who is buying the gifts. The tags are hanging by family, if you want to purchase gifts for siblings, take tags that look alike & confirm that the numbers on the back are the same. When returning the gifts, please use the tag that you selected as the gift tag to help us keep track.
  Gifts should be returned to the church by Sunday, December 6th. Thank you for your generosity to these children.

- Unity Prayer Watch Edgeboro will be responsible for praying throughout the day on Sunday, December 13. Sign-up sheet and prayer packet are available in the rear of the sanctuary.

- Luminaria Night Once again, Edgeboro will be joining to support New Bethany in lighting up the pathways in Bethlehem to support those in need. On December 12, Edgeboro will line the sidewalks around the church with 100 luminaria lights. If you can support this beautiful event, please send in your donation to Edgeboro Moravian church with luminaria as the designation.

- Snow Removal If you are able and willing to help the snow removal team this winter, please contact Art Sergent or the church office, We have 2 snowblowers at the church and plenty of shovels, or you can BYOS (bring your own shovel) Many hands make light work!

- Flower Change Beginning January of 2026 The Joint Board decided that we will no longer be purchasing fresh flower arrangements for Sunday worship. We are looking at other options, perhaps fresh greenery/flowers from your garden or other ideas. Jenny Minnich will be in charge, and you can reach out to her, 610.248-9250.
  In lieu flowers, you may still honor or remember loved ones by sponsoring the bulletin for $20.00. Sign-up sheet for that can be found in the narthex.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

Creamy Cheese Torte — Mrs. Thomas Price

Crust:
1 ¼ c. graham cracker crumbs
½ c. sugar
1 Tbsp. flour
¼ tsp. cinnamon
¼ c. butter or margarine, melted

Filling:
24oz. cream cheese
2 Tbsp. sour cream
1 tsp. vanilla
½ tsp. almond extract
4 egg whites
1 c. sugar

Crust:
Combine dry ingredients. Add melted butter or margaring. Press on bottom and ¾ way of the way up sides of buttered 3 inch deep, 9-inch spring form pan.

Filling: Have cream chees at room temperature, beat until fluffy. Add sour cream and almond extract. Beat egg whites until stiff, gradually beat in sugar. Fold egg white and sugar blend into cheese mixture. Pour into pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 mintues. Remove from oven. Let stand 5 minutes. increase oven temperature to 425 degrees.

Topping:
1 pt. minus 2 Tbsp. sour cream 2 Tbsp. sugar
½ tsp. vanilla

Mix together and pour over top of cake. Bke at 425 degrees for 5 minutes. Cool on rack away from drafts. Chill . Remove sides of pan when read to serve. Makes 10-12 servings.
